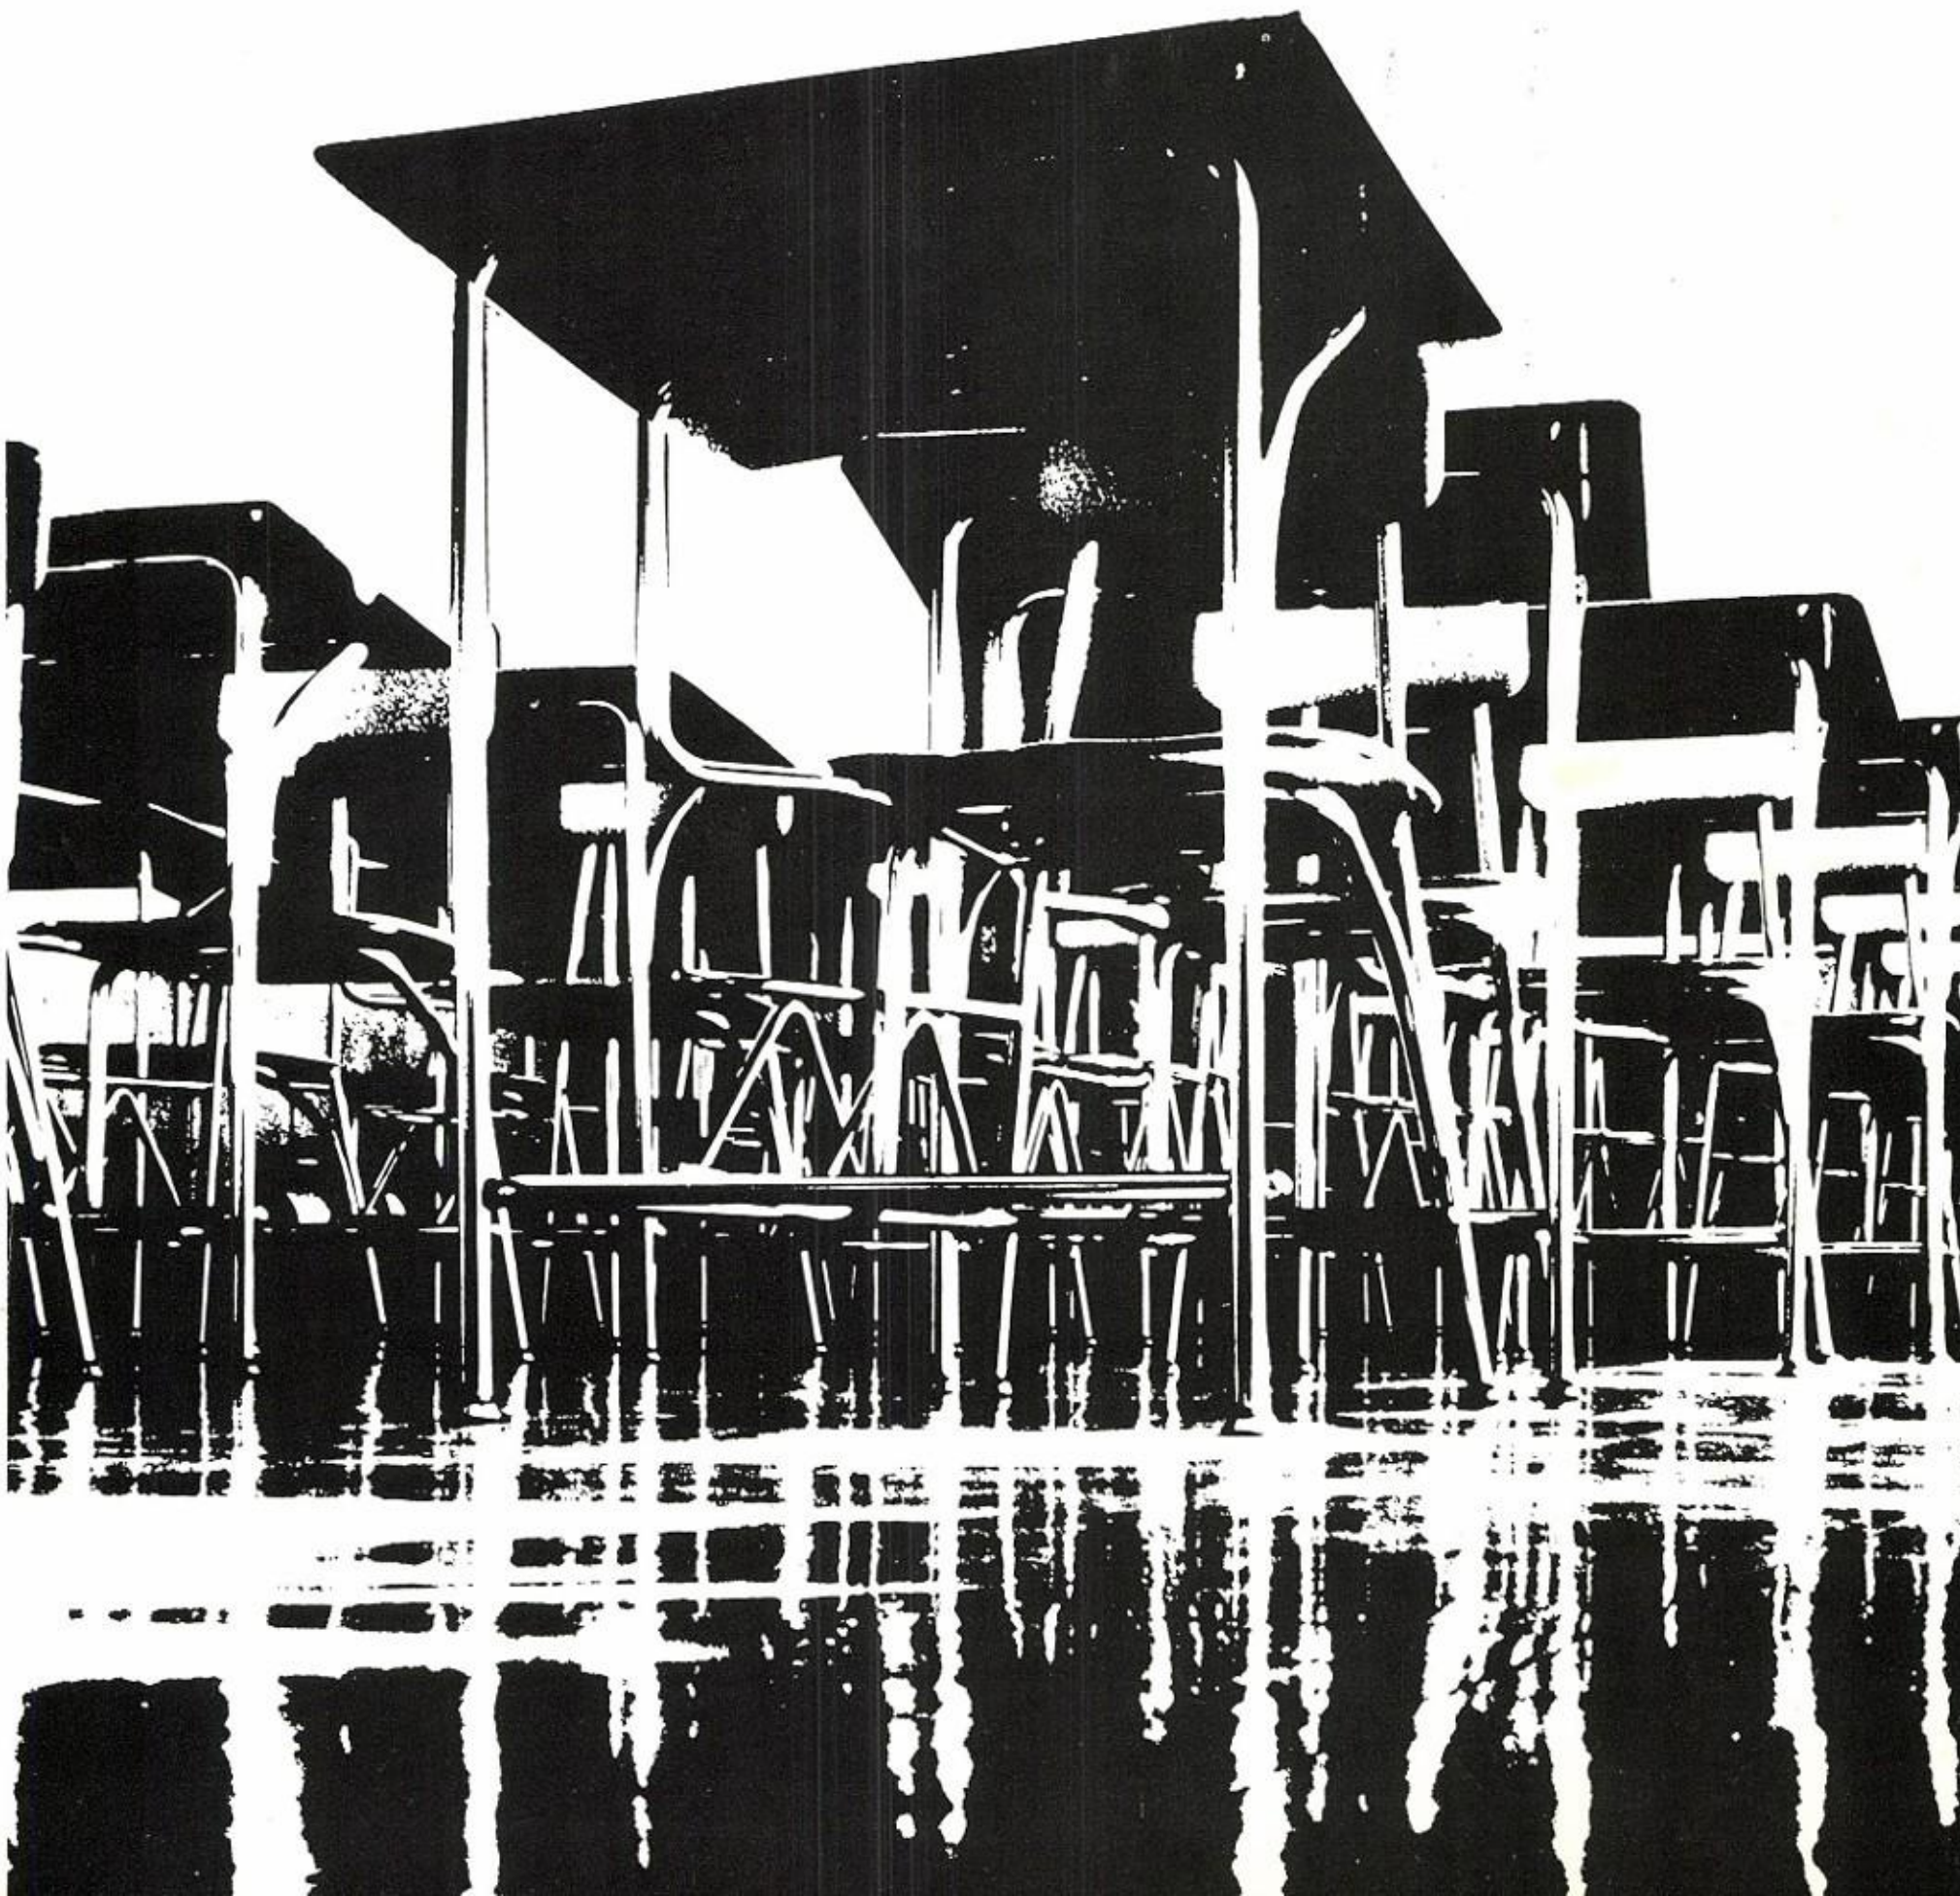
NESHOTAH '79
WASHINGTON HIGH SCHOOL
TWO RIVER'S, WISCONSIN



met a stranger
called me by my name
how he knew I did not ask
for fear being put to shame.
It seemed he knew me inside out
but how he would not tell
In stead he told me stories of things I knew quite well.
Things that happened in the past, some
that made me laugh, of football games
and childhood names, and friends I held so
dear.
And of my first real sweet heart
I almost shed a tear
He said "I'm mister yesterday the man who holds the past.
Remember the things that happened today
cause tomorrow comes so fast.
Live each day to its fullest a moment
at a time, for the rest of life you'll find is a fast and upward climb."
So if you can take time each day of moments put away, for holding onto yesterday a keepsake of today.

Well the year
is almost to an end now. Yah-hoo
you a real sweet friend
kid. See ya

(which is hardly ever. Rats!) Have fun and keep outa trouble! "80"

AFA. just one of the gang,

"When we are children justice worries us and haunts our dreams. Growing older, we want to assert ourself; we formulate opinions that can help us to be more sure. I've learned to will others my opinions and live unsure of myself. I'm here and I can breathe deeply, close my eyes, submerge into the sea."

This is a clumsy translation of some of my ideas I wrote in my diary, few days ago. The time I haven't narrows my scope to something that isn't mine, that doesn't satisfy. I want to tell you that I am happy to be overwhelmed by the responsibilities toward life; the AFS program and the other cultural exchanges are engaging experiences that only you can transform in constructive material.

ROTARY EXCHANGE

Matthias von Schwerdiner

I really enjoy my stay here. So many things are different from those in Germany. That is what makes my stay really exciting. Everyday something interesting happens to me. I have learned about this country. So I am really lucky that I have the chance to learn about the culture of this wonderful country and its people.

Hi Debbie → I am totally honored to be the first one to sign on this page, so I'll take advantage of it & use up as much space as I can. I can't really say it's a total honor to sign a WHS year book → it's actually degrading myself, but I guess I can live with it! No seriously → I guess it's a pretty decent school → considering who's graduating from it this year (Bob!)

We really haven't seen much of you this year besides at Folk, so we'll have to do something about that this summer, and play some tennis or something. If, and I repeat if, I ever get my license, we'll have to go cruising around & get away from this pathetically "hick" Two Rivers!

Oh, well! have fun in Canada, or wherever that mob of yours is going! Keep in touch → Noelle (RHS) ←
